II. Statement of Claim:

Officer Miller of the 79th Precinct acting in his official capacity as a police officer of the NYPD, Used his position to fulfil his personal vendetta against the complainant by Knowingly, Willingly and intentionally arresting the complainant in the presence of gang members that were at that time, under investigation by Police Officer Miller, The 79th Precinct, The New York Police Department and the District Attorney as well.

Officer Miller and his partner used derogatory and defamatory statements, audibly while the complainant was placed under arrest, statements of such nature as to place the life, safety, repose and quiet enjoyment of the complainant at grave risk and danger.

The 79th Precinct as a command and the New York Police Department within its capacity, failed to properly address and correct the behavior of police officer Jamaal Miller although several complaints regarding his behavior was made by the complainant to the Internal Affairs Bureau division of the New York Police Department

The New York Police Department failed to properly address and correct the behavior of Police Officer Miller upon complaints made to the Internal Affairs Bureau Division Of the New York Police Department and the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) after the complainant was arrested by Police Officer Jamaal Miller and His partner on August 16, 2013.

The Failure of the New York Police Department within its capacity and the 79th Precinct as a command, to admonish and or discipline Police Officer Jamaal Miller allowed him uninhibitally to harass, Intimidate, arrest and disrupt the complainants repose and quiet enjoyment without consequence or the fear thereof.

Facts: August 2, 2013 Police Officer Jamaal Miller made derogatory statements to the complainant while the complainant was kissing his girlfriend, while standing on the corner of Gates Ave and Throop Ave. Police Office Stated to the Complainants girlfriend "you can do better ma'am". Police Officer Jamaal Miller also shined a spotlight into the complainants face while delivering a tirade of obscenities before he drove away. The Complainant Immediately filed a complaint with the Internal Affairs Bureau Division of the New York Police Department.

August 5, 2013 Police Officer Miller and his partner stopped and frisked the complainant without provocation, expressing distaste in regards to the complaint that was filed by the complainant. The complainant proceeded to the 79th Precinct whereupon the complainant requested to speak to a Supervisor. The Seargent at the desk was Summoned and the complainant explained to the Seargent that Police Officer Miller was Harrassing him and that a complaint was filed with the IAB. The Seargent reassured the complainant that the Police Officer would be addressed regarding this issue.

August 16, 2013 Police Officer Jamaal Miller and His partner did falsely arrest the complainant in front of his residence of 349 Monroe St. Brooklyn, New York. Without Warrant, Suspicion, or Provocation Police Officer Jamaal Miller and His Partner Kicked the driver side door of the Complainants Girl friend Katherine Pfhol's Toyota Prius, while pointing his service weapon directly at the complainant. Police officer Jamaal Miller rear cuffed the complainant and began to parade the complainant back and forth before the onlooking pedestrians, neighbors and beknown to officer Miller at the time gang members, while shouting obscenities and and making statements to the onlookers that the complainant was "Drug dealing scum", and "a Drug Dealing Piece of Explicit" and other statements to that effect.

The Complainant was taken to the 79th Precinct, at which time the complainant was stripped searched and finger printed. The complainant was then processed and transported to 120 Schemerhorn upon which time arrainged on the single count of an open container.

August 17, 2013, the complainant was released from custody following arraignment. The Charge of "Open Container" was Dismissed. Upon the complainants arrival to his residence of 349 Monroe St. the complainant was confronted by members of a local street Gang regarding drugs and territory.

August 17, 2013 the complainant contacted the IAB and the Civilian complaint review Board and filed a complaint.

August 25, 2013, Police Officer Jamaal Miller and his Partner encountered the complainant once again within the vicinity of Lexington ave and Throop Ave. Police Officer Jamaal Miller and His partner began to Frisk and search the complainant while using obscenities and expressing their distaste towards the complainant for filing a complaint.

September 12, 2013, The complainant gave a sworn deposition to the CCRB and the following day the complainant was robbed at gun point in his home, by members of the local street gang known to Police Office Jamaal Miller, the 79th Precinct as a command and the NYPD as well.
